Epicor® Recognized on Prestigious 2011 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100 List

Epicor Acknowledged for Assisting Customers in Achieving Supply Chain Excellence in Post-Recessionary Growth

IRVINE, Calif. — May 5, 2011 — Epicor Software Corporation (NASDAQ: EPIC), a leading provider of enterprise business software solutions for the midmarket and divisions of Global 1000 companies, today announced that Epicor has been selected as one of the 2011 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100's "100 Great Supply Chain Projects." The 2011 Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100 are supply chain solution and service providers assisting their customers and clients to achieve supply chain excellence and prepare for a post-recessionary return to growth.

"Our readers count on Supply & Demand Chain Executive for intelligence and decision-making information on solutions and best practices for supply chain transformation," said Andrew K. Reese, editorial director of Supply & Demand Chain Executive. "With this year's Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100, we are featuring '100 Great Supply Chain Projects' that demonstrate the broad spectrum of opportunities for enabling excellence in the supply chain."

For this year's "Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100" feature, the magazine highlights supply chain transformation projects that have had a significant impact on the companies going through the implementations. The nominees were evaluated by the magazine's editorial staff primarily based on: ambitiousness/scope of the project; creative application of technologies/solutions/services used; extent of the business results/impact; and clarity of submission.

"Our goal with this year's '100' is to put the spotlight on successful and innovative transformation projects that are delivering bottom-line value to small, medium and large enterprises across the different functions that comprise the supply chain," added Barry Hochfelder, editor of Supply & Demand Chain Executive. "The projects featured in the '100' article can serve as a roadmap for supply chain executives looking for new opportunities to drive improvement in their own operations."

Epicor offers an extensive range of supply chain management (SCM) software as part of its end-to-end ERP solutions. Based on an industry leading service-oriented architecture (SOA), Epicor is complemented by an array of enterprise capabilities, including customer relationship management (CRM), supplier relationship management (SRM), supply chain execution (SCE), and sourcing solutions.

"We are honored to be recognized on the Supply & Demand Chain Executive 100," said James Norwood, senior vice president, worldwide product marketing for Epicor. "Our next-generation ERP and supply chain management solutions enable our customers to drive innovation throughout their businesses and broader value-chain, as they achieve greater efficiencies and increased profitability from their IT investments."

Final recipients will be featured in the cover story of the June 2011 issue of Supply & Demand Chain Executive, as well as online at www.SDCExec.com/SDCE100.
