Birdsall Selects Epicor Wholesale Distribution ERP to Advance Its Business to the Next Level

East Coast Plumbing Distributor to Implement Epicor Eclipse

AUSTIN, Texas, August 14, 2014 -- Epicor Software Corporation, a global leader in business software solutions for manufacturing, distribution, retail and services organizations, today announced that Birdsall of Linden, New Jersey, has selected the Epicor Eclipse wholesale distribution enterprise resource planning (ERP) solution to increase business efficiency and streamline processes for overall performance.

Birdsall is a full-service provider of high quality plumbing, heating, and air conditioning products, including popular product lines such as Weil McLain, Williamson-Thermoflo, Rheem and Navien. Founded in 1911, the company serves customers in New Jersey and New York. Epicor Eclipse will provide Birdsall with a scalable business management system for its three locations in Linden, Summit, and North Plainfield, New Jersey.

“We felt we had outgrown our existing ERP system, and it was time to look around,” said Michael Murphy, president, Birdsall. “Based on the advice of current employees and some of our friendly competitors, we came to look at Epicor Eclipse, and we were impressed by the depth of functionality available for our business.”

“We are pleased to have Birdsall join the long and growing list of premier plumbing distributors using Epicor Eclipse,” said Donna Troy, executive vice president and general manager, ERP Americas for Epicor. “Our goal is to create value for our customers by improving their business results, and Eclipse is specifically tailored to meet these distributors’ needs now and in the future.”
