Epicor Recognised as ‘Best ERP Systems Provider’ for Fourth Year at 2016 Asian Manufacturing Awards

Epicor Software Corporation, a global provider of industry-specific enterprise software to promote business growth, today announced that it has won the ‘Best ERP Systems Provider’ accolade at the 2016 Asian Manufacturing Awards, held at the Singapore Marriott Tang Plaza Hotel on the 25th of August.

This is the fourth year that Epicor has been recognised as ‘Best ERP Systems Provider’ after accepting the inaugural award in 2012. Organised by the Manufacturing Group of publications at Contineo Media, the Asian Manufacturing Awards honours manufacturers and service providers who provide the best solutions for control, instrumentation, and automation, that address today’s engineering and manufacturing challenges.

“We are proud to be recognised for our ability to deliver value through innovative ERP technology that helps manufacturers focus on business growth,” said Sabby Gill, executive vice president of Epicor International. “Epicor ERP is a global enterprise resource planning solution that delivers the choice, flexibility and agility to drive growth. This industry recognition is a testament to our continued investment in creating business solutions that address the real-world challenges our customers face as they strive to grow in today’s global economy.”

In presenting the award Contineo Media said, “The judging criteria were based on the four pillars of customer impact, engagement, market penetration and innovation. Epicor has been recognised for their level of innovation in their ERP software. We are happy to recognise them for their great contribution and impact for Asian manufacturers for a fourth time.”
